Prague

Metropole všech – Prague for All

<https://metropolevsech.eu/en/>

Services: website which is primarily intended for foreigners living in Prague and designed as a reference point of the most important information and contacts for organisations, offices and their departments. The aim is to enable foreigners to get as much information as possible about dealing with everyday situations and living in the city that has become their new home. The website also provides information about courses of Czech, cultural events, and opportunities to participate in public life, which give migrants a chance to integrate into life in the capital city and in the Czech Republic.

Integration Centre Prague (Integrační centrum Praha, o.p.s.)

Web: <https://icpraha.com/>

Integration centre Prague (ICP) is a non-profit organization that strives to make Prague a city for everyone – a home to all those who have decided to live here regardless of their country of origin, and a place where the citizens respect and support one another, and team up. ICP provides free of charge services for foreigners from non-EU countries such as: Czech language courses, legal and social consulting, interpreting and accompaniment, educational seminars and it also organizes events where foreigners and Czechs can get to know each other and their cultures.

Learn more about ICP at www.icpraha.com or follow @ICPraha on Facebook, Instagram and Vkontakte. We also recommend downloading PRAGUER - the app for foreigners living in Prague where you can find important information and contacts in several languages.
